All Nebraska Courts Are Now Offering Online Payment for Traffic Citations Through the Nebraska Judicial Branch's New ePayment System

Courts in every county in Nebraska are now offering motorists the option to pay traffic tickets online. As of early July, the courts in Banner, Blaine, Butler, Deuel, Dixon, Furnas, Garden, Greeley, Polk, Saline, Sioux, and Wayne are offering drivers who receive payable traffic citations (tickets with a set fine which can be paid without a court appearance) the ability to pay their traffic fines on the Internet through the Nebraska Judicial Branch's new online payment system.

The new ePayment system offers individuals a secured location to pay their traffic citations. Motorists can log onto the Judicial Branch Web site, www.supremecourt.ne.gov, and click on the "ePayments" button. Users of ePayment can pay their citations using Visa, MasterCard or debit cards with the Visa or MasterCard logos. Individuals are assessed a transaction fee by the vendor.

Typical traffic citations that can be paid on-line include: speeding tickets, seat belt violations, driving without current tags, failure to stop at stop sign, and similar offenses of a less serious nature.

However, more serious violations still require court appearances, including driving on a suspended license, driving while under the influence of alcohol, driving an uninsured vehicle, or driving while impaired by controlled dangerous substances. Motorists may not pay their traffic citation online if the citation indicates that they must appear in court.

City and municipal parking citations must be paid to the local municipalities, although many cities have their own online ePayment programs.
